Following the installation, Junior Past Exalted Ruler Pinkney was presented with a jewel of that office by the installing officer.

The initiatory degree was conferred during the course of the meeting on a class of four candidates.

Following the meeting, tables were spread and a sumptuous banquet was partaken of. The catering was under the direct supervision of Past D.D. G.E.R. Robert Gray and was performed in excellent style. After luncheon, the chair was taken by Bro. Ferguson, the new exalted ruler of the local lodge, and speeches were the order of the day, with a very interesting address from Bro. Leyden.

Among the visitors were several from Pincher Creek lodge, who extended an invitation to the members of Blairmore and Coleman lodges to attend their regular meeting on Wednesday night, when the officers for the ensuing term were to be installed by Bro. Leyden.

BLAIRMORE WINS OPENING GAME OF SEMI-PLAYOFFS

The best exhibition of hockey seen in years was staged at the local arena last night in the semi-final tilt between the Edmonton Athletics and the Blairmore Legion Juniors, Alberta champions. The game was handled by Doc Barbour, of Bellevue, and was fairly clean throughout. For most of the three period time, the locals appeared to have slightly the edge on the visitors, and the score is a fair indication.

About one thousand fans witnessed this game. The visitors are remaining here to finish the series tomorrow (Friday) night, when it is expected the big arena will be packed, as interest in the juniors is intense.

Last night, many fans were caused to miss part of the first period owing to not having secured tickets in advance and the consequent last-minute rush. So for Friday night's game tickets may be procured from some of the local stores and reserved seat tickets from the drug stores at Coleman, Bellevue and Blairmore.

Last night's score was five-two in Blairmore's favor, and the visitors will have to step some tomorrow night to reverse this score.

Cannore Seniors will appear on the

PINKNEY AND BEEBE RETURNED AS TRUSTEES

Considerable interest was manifested in the municipal and school elections on Monday, around five hundred going to the polls.

The result of the vote was as follows:

School—Pinkney 282, Beebe 245, Drain 194, Irvine 182. Pinkney and Beebe re-elected.

Town—Morgan 236, Patterson 166, Ferguson 155, Olsen 127, Beebe 121, Pozzi 90, Turner 80. Morgan and Ferguson re-elected, Patterson elected.

There were 29 town ballots spoiled and 33 school.

The lineup for 1928 will be:

Council—Mayor Farmer, Councillors Evan Morgan, Mark Sutoria, W. McVey, W. Patterson, Marshall Hamilton and A. E. Ferguson.

School Board—W. H. Chappell, W. A. Beebe, R. W. H. Pinkney, C. J. Tompkins and J. Angus McDonald.

FIRST AID

The following accidents, which were considered trivial when they happened, but which terminated fatally, owing to lack of proper treatment in the first place, shows the importance of a little knowledge in First Aid. These accidents all occurred as follows:

1. A miner cut his thumb with a piece of coal which fell off his shovel whilst throwing the coal. Instead of having his injury properly dressed, he bound it up with a piece of dirty rag. The wound became septic and proved fatal.

2. A miner injured his knee by knocking it against a face conveyor. He reported the injury to his foreman, who considered it too slight to require First Aid treatment. Septicæmia set in and the miner died a month afterwards, proving that no injury is small enough to be free from the danger of complication.

3. Whilst crawling up the coal face, a miner received a punctured wound on the knee. On coming out of the mine, he reported the injury, but refused treatment. The wound became septic and he died three weeks later. Proper treatment at the First Aid station might have saved his life.

4. A miner, whilst pulling down a piece of hard top coal, received a slight cut on the back of one of his hands. He thought nothing of the injury and finished his shift. Later, his hand began to fester and blood poisoning set in, with fatal results.

This fatality emphasizes again the need for the warning that injuries, however slight, should receive prompt attention.

C.P.R. BRAKEMAN DIES FROM INJURIES

A man named Baird, employed on the C.P.R. yard crew at Frank, had the misfortune today to fall beneath the trucks of a moving car, losing an arm and a leg. He was rushed to the Blairmore hospital where he died in a short time.

Mr. Baird is single and came to Frank from Cranbrook. His parents reside in Ontario, and it is likely the remains will be forwarded east.

FORMER PASS RESIDENT DIES AT VANCOUVER

Another of the oldest old-timers of this district died at Vancouver yesterday, in the person of Mr. Anthony Wardman, aged well into the eighties.

Mr. Wardman formerly resided in the district north of Burmis, selling out but a few years ago, to move to the Pacific coast to spend his declining years. He was a member of Blairmore Lodge No. 68, I.O.O.F.

local arena on Monday night. Cannore has a fine lineup and a good game Monday is assured.

Miss Dorothea Cox, who had the misfortune to break a leg bone during her Christmas vacation, returned to town from Pincher Creek on Monday and resumed her duties as teacher at the local school on Tuesday.

The first regular meeting of the new town council takes place on Monday night next. At this meeting re-organization will take place, including the appointments of committees, officials, etc.

Eight Years Of World Service

With the conclusion of the Great War and the assembling of the Peace Conference, a new chapter was written in the history of this old world when the League of Nations was formed and the Covenant of the League written. By that act, new conception, a new ideal of international relationships and obligations came into being.

On January 8th last, the League of Nations observed its eighth anniversary, and although eight years is but as a fleeting second in the life of the world, there is interest and value in glancing back over that brief period and seeking to measure the usefulness of the League and in endeavoring to find an answer to the question whether it is worth while, and whether there is to be found in its brief history the seeds of permanence.

The general opinion of the press of the world is that, while the League has not accomplished all that was hoped for, it realized the extravagant hopes of its most enthusiastic supporters, neither have the doleful prophecies of the skeptics of 1920 been fulfilled.

The League has not yet succeeded in making the world safe from the menacing shadow of future war, although it has been instrumental in mediating at least six disputes, any one of which might have developed into world war. On the other hand, it has confounded all the dire prophecies that it would quickly collapse in a welter of quarrels and recriminations. Instead, it stands stronger today than at any previous period in its short history.

From its inception, the programme of the League has had two main objects—two great principles which, from the first, it has sought to establish—the extension of international law, and the settlement of international disputes by arbitration. It has done much to secure acceptance by all nations of these principles. But that is not the sum total of its accomplishments. To quote Lord Cecil:

"It has improved international intercourse, it has struck some effective blows at grave social evils, it has rescued some hundreds of thousands of men, women and children from captivity or starvation, it has done something to restore the economic situation in Europe, it has succeeded statesmanlike in a financial manner."

The League has yet to achieve its highest purpose, its greatest task, the attainment of a position which ought to destroy war. If it has, as yet, failed in that, its disarmament is still a dream and war still a dreadful possibility, the reason is not far to seek. The London Daily Herald, Labor, states the position when it says:

"The character of any association is derived from and determined by the character of its members. A thousand Quakers will not make an effective infantry battalion, nor a thousand bookmakers an effective anti-gambling society. The impossibility of gathering grapes from thistles is not altered even by dubbing a thistle field a vineyard. And since the League is a collection of governments, its character and its work depend inevitably upon the nature of those governments. Its collective will is formed by their individual wills. It must in practice be an instrument of their policies."

Or, to quote Lord Cecil again:

"The task of the League is to destroy war—a task of enormous difficulty. It certainly cannot be accomplished at a single stroke or in a few years. It will need all our energies, all our courage, and all our faith. The first step is to get rid of the notion that it is lawful for one nation to make war on another at its own will and pleasure. That step has been taken so far as all members of the League of Nations are concerned. It is implied in the Covenant, and has been definitely expressed more than once in resolutions of the Assembly to the effect that 'aggressive war is an international crime'."

The League of Nations' membership of forty or fifty nations includes all the great nations of the world with the exception of Russia and the United States. For eight years the leading statesmen of these nations have been assembling around the conference table and exchanging views with the utmost frankness. They are learning each others' viewpoints. They are striving to find common ground of agreement, and to develop formulas acceptable to all and upon which common action may be taken. In this manner many old prejudices and suspicions have been wiped away, and a spirit of goodwill and a readiness to co-operate engendered.

The League of Nations is, above all, a powerful educational influence leading the peoples of all races, colors and creeds to think along lines of peace rather than of war. And that, after all, is the main essential—the development of a peace consciousness, a real desire for peace on the part of the masses of the people, everywhere. Only so will war be utterly destroyed.

Cannot Keep All Seven

Turkish Peasant Must Give Up Three Youngest Wives

One of the world's large families has been found in Uzunlu, living in a one-room shack. It consists of a 50-year-old peasant, Agha Faksa, his seven wives and twenty-three children.

The old Moslem law permitted a man four wives, and as the new law abolishing polygamy is not retroactive, the peasant's first four wives in order of marriage will be left to him.

He will be required to divorce the last three, to his great sorrow. For the last three are the youngest and the best looking.

Mikado Carries Two Watches

Both Of Nickel Timepieces Cost Less Than Ten Dollars

The Emperor of Japan wears two watches, one on his wrist and another in his pocket. The double time protection, however, represents an investment of only 20 yen, less than $10. Intent on setting an example of simple living, and frugality before his subjects, he selects watches of plain nickel.

The timepieces were in evidence at a dinner party given by His Majesty at the Imperial Palace for Premier Tanaka, former Premier, Cabinet Ministers and other high officials.

The Emperor is especially concerned about agriculture, and in the Imperial Palace grounds he has a rice field of his own which he personally cultivates. Carbed in working clothes and surrounded by numerous retainers and officials the Emperor with his own hands harvested his last crop.

Empire Marketing Board

Campaign In Old Country To Create Demand For Empire Products

The Empire Marketing Board is carrying on a most useful work in endeavoring to educate the purchasing public of the Old Land in respect of the Empire. One of the striking methods used is a series of illustrated advertisements depicting typical scenes in connection with marketing and transportation of various products from distant parts of the Empire.

Two striking advertisements recently issued deal with apples from Canada, and are calculated to bring very forcefully to one's attention the excellent qualities of this important Canadian fruit. No better method could be desired for creating a demand for this product of Canadian orchards, and should materially assist in stimulating trade within the Empire.

ARE YOU RUN DOWN?

All That Is Needed Is a Tonic To Build Up the Blood

There are many people who have been semi-invalids so long that they accept their condition as a life burden. They have endured nervousness, broken sleep and a generally run-down feeling so long that they have given up hope of again enjoying good health. In most of these cases a weak chloretic diet, fresh air and a tonic to build up the blood would do wonders. And as a blood-building tonic no other medicine can compare with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. There is scarcely a spot in Canada where you will not find some formerly stiling person who has been made healthy through the use of this medicine. The experience of Mrs. Thomas Ahearn, St. Malo, Que., bears out these statements. She says:—"I have the greatest reason to be thankful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me. I was in a very weak and run-down condition. Frequently I would faint and my legs would swell badly. It was almost impossible to do any housework. It seemed as if my blood had turned to water. In this weak and dependent condition I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A few boxes proved that they were helping me, but I was not satisfied taking the pills until I had used a dozen boxes, by which time I found myself completely restored woman, able to do my work without fatigue, a better appetite and a sense of cheerfulness, when before I had been despondent. For all this, thanks to the health-giving qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

If you are feeling run-down, give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial and see how healthy you will be. They can get the pills from any medical dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

TO WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Wilson's Experience a Guide to Women Passing through the Change of Life

Hamilton, Ontario.—"I have taken several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot speak too highly of it as it has changed my life and was all run-down and had no appetite. I was very weak and sick, and the pains in my back were so bad I could hardly move. Times and thought I had not a friend on earth. I did not care if I lived or died. I was very nervous, too, and did not get out very much. I had been advised me to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. I am a farmer's wife, and always worked hard until lately, and in less than two months I began to feel like a new woman after the first bottle and I recommend it with great success to all women who are passing through the change of life. I am willing to answer letters from women asking about your medicine as I cannot speak too highly of them."—Mrs. E. A. Wilson, 471 Wilson Street, Hamilton, Ontario.

Support Canadian Literature

Canadian Books, By Canadian Authors, Printed in Canada

The Carillon Book Club, of Canada, have inaugurated a plan to furnish the reading public of Canada with books by Canadian authors, printed by Canadian workmen on paper made in Canada. They have received an option on the output of a Canadian publishing house, and as soon as each book comes from the press they will be sent postpaid to members of the book club. The annual subscription fee is $10 per year, and this pay for six new books, which will be sent to members as soon as printed and at intervals of two months. This is not a money making proposition, the main object being to provide the people of Canada with good, wholesome books by well-known Canadian writers. Mr. C. C. Knight, Exchange Building, Ottawa, is the president of the club, and by writing to him, full particulars of the plan will be gladly furnished.

Explanation Of Myopia

Prevalent Because Man Has Still Characteristics Of Fish

Some justification for calling a nearsighted motorist a "poor fish," was advanced recently at the convention of the American Academy of Optometry. It was said that nearsightedness, or myopia, is prevalent because man has not yet completely lost some of the characteristics of a fish. His eyes naturally diverge to the right and left instead of looking straight ahead. The inner muscles of the eyes, in trying to correct this and strain the ciliary muscles of the eye, subject the eye to a strain which produces myopia.

Recipes For This Week

(By Betty Barclay)

GERMAN SOUP BEEF

2 cups water.
1/2 cup lemon juice.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
1/2 teaspoon pepper.
1 large onion.
1 carrot.
2 pounds cheap cut of beef.

Cut onion in thin slices; cut carrot in strips; add water, lemon juice, salt and pepper, and pour over the beef, and leave over night. Drain meat; put in small agate pan; dredge meat with flour, and put in hot oven until flour is brown. Add one cup of the water in which meat was soaked, and cover closely. Bake slowly, and, when half done, add vegetables, drained from water, and continue the cooking, adding more liquid, as needed. When tender, remove to serving-dish, and thicken gravy of which there should be one cup, with two tablespoons flour, mixed with two tablespoons cold liquid. Add, if desired, one-fourth cup sour cream. Put vegetables around the beef, and serve gravy in a sauceboat.

The lemon juice helps very much to make tough meats tender.

Builds Greatest War Plane

French Machine Can Carry Two Tons Of Bombs 500 Miles

France is developing and is now testing the greatest aerial warship ever built, armed with eight machine guns and capable of carrying two tons of bombs in a radius of 500 miles, rising with that weight to a height of 18,000 feet, out of range of all land guns.

The ship is a mystery plane, built in absolute secrecy, and it was not until the tests were started that French engineers told of its remarkable strength.

Despite its size, it has a fine profile which makes it less of a target in the sky. A double set of wheels permits landing in fields in which ordinary planes could not land. The propellers need not be swung by hand, but start like an automobile motor with simple foot pressure.

There are many novel features, such as a balcony for the crew, sending and receiving wireless, a map room and a special cabin for the bomber with controls permitting him to drop a single bomb or an entire load at once. It can be transformed into a seaplane within an hour.

Drives Out Many Burglars

Dog In Geneva, Switzerland, Has Made Thieving Unprofitable

Much of the credit for the fact that no case of burglary or theft was brought before him in 1927, has been publicly ascribed by Judge Marc Collo, Geneva, Switzerland, to the sagacity of a wolfhound named Wigger, owned by a gentleman named Casar.

The dog made thieving so unprofitable that the number of malefactors speedily diminished. He traced and caused the arrest of more than twenty burglars and thieves in the Canton of Vaud, and also found many missing persons. After smelling of the bed of a man who had been missing for three days, Wigger traced his footsteps to the edge of a lake, beneath whose waters the body was discovered.

Sending Movies By Radio

Taken In New York Can Be Seen In London One Hour Later

When a new British invention—a wireless-operated tele-cinema-graph—has been developed it is predicted that it will be possible to see a film in London one hour after it has been taken in New York.

The film cannot be transmitted at the same speed at which it was taken, but it can be sent at the rate of two "stills" a second. After reception on the other side it can be developed and screened at the normal rate of sixteen pictures a second.

The inventors assert that it will be possible to broadcast a football match at Glasgow to movie fans all over Great Britain the same afternoon.

COMMONS DEBATE CLOSES WITHOUT A VOTE TAKEN

Ottawa.—After ten days of debate and without a division, the House of Commons adopted the address in reply to the speech from the Throne. The last day was a day of incidents and threatening storm although the end came quietly.

Hon. C. A. Dunning, Minister of Railways, participated in the debate in the evening.

Scarcely had debate been resumed in the House, when Hon. C. A. Dunning, Minister of Railways, intimated a statement made in the House as "absolutely false." There were loud Conservative protests.

Hon. R. B. Bennett, Opposition leader, demanded withdrawal.

"I think it would be better to act as an example to the House," gravely observed Speaker Lennox, and the expression was withdrawn.

Thomas McMillan, (Liberal, South Huron), defended the financial record of the Government. The Liberal Government, during its period in office, had decreased the national debt by over $100,000,000 and had turned the railway deficits into surpluses. Canada's advancement in the international field during the last ten years had been little less than marvelous.

A. M. Young, (Liberal, Saskatoon), believed the appointment of ministers to Tokyo and Paris would be successful. These representatives would be equally as important as the Canadian minister at Washington.

"I am not particularly enamoured with the Board of Railway Commissioners," commented Dr. Young in referring to the transportation of Alberta coal to Ontario. Despite legislation passed in 1925 for the removal of discriminatory freight rates, the board had dilly-dallied and allowed two crops of grain to be moved without taking the necessary action to remove discrimination. He opposed any suggestion for the adoption of a statutory rate on coal less than the official finding of the railway board.

Canada was enjoying prosperity, and there was less unemployment in the Dominion than we had had for some years.

"They are all gone to the United States," interjected Peter McGillion, (Conservative, Muskoka).

"You are not thinking of going, too?" retorted Dr. Young, while the House showed its amusement.

"We find that when you come to social legislation in the interest of

KELLOGG HAS A KIND MESSAGE FOR CANADIANS

Ottawa.—"With no Imperial territory, with no wish for the territory of any other country, with a common history, common hopes and aspirations, we have in the past and we will in the future adjust our difficulties by peaceful means. If we have mutual acquaintance with each other's institutions, respect for each other's rights, tolerance and patience, there is no question which cannot and will not be adjusted between us."

In these words Hon. Frank B. Kellogg, Secretary of State for the United States, expressed to the Canadian people the feeling of Americans towards this and other countries in a banquet here, tendered in his honor by the Prime Minister of Canada, Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King.

Proposing the toast to the Prime Minister, the Prime Minister expressed the appreciation of Canadians at the honor done this country when Hon. Mr. Phillips was selected as first minister to Canada.

"We felt at the time he came," said Mr. Mackenzie King, "knowing his career at Washington and abroad, that we had every reason to extend to him a warm welcome. Now that he has been among us for some months, we feel we can extend to Americans generally the same welcome, due to the representation which Mr. Phillips has given us of the United States."

Replying to the toast, Mr. Kellogg declared President Coolidge had specially commissioned him to extend to the Government and the people of Canada his very best wishes and most sincere regards and also to express his thanks for the visit of the Governor-General and the Prime Minister. He expressed thanks for the reception accorded him, a "reception the people of Canada you have to trust to the Liberal Party to get it," said Dr. Young after brief reference to old age pensions. Dr. Young advocated encouraging immigration from the British Isles, but said we should not discourage those immigrants from other countries who could be assimilated.

Atlantic Air Service

Regular Passenger and Mail Service To Be Instituted This Summer

Washington.—Regular trans-Atlantic mail and passenger service by dirigible airships will be instituted within three months with the co-operation and approval of the United States Government. Secretary Hoover said recently in announcing the conclusion of conference with representatives of British interests who are responsible for the enterprise.

The dirigible R-100, now under construction in England, designed to carry 100 passengers and ten tons of mail, is to inaugurate the new air service, on a tentative schedule that will consume 48 hours on her westward voyage and 38 hours on the eastward return.

The United States Government will loan the R-100 the use of the naval air station mooring mast and equipment at Lakehurst, N.J. Negotiations are now under way with the Post Office Department by which the air liner will be given a special mail contract.

Again President Of National Dairy Council

J. A. Caulder Unanimously Re-Elected By That Organization

Regina.—J. A. Caulder, president of the National Dairy Council, was unanimously re-elected by that organization, when it held its first meeting of the year.

Mr. Caulder suggested in his address that it would be best to elect some eastern member to the presidency, as the important matters coming before the council this year, such as the revision of the Australian and New Zealand preferential tariff, which would be handled by some one in close touch with the Ottawa headquarters of the council. He was, however, overruled by the other members.

Master Under Consideration
Edmonton.—The offer of the Canadian National Railways for the Alberta and Great Waterways line has been received by the provincial government and is under consideration by Premier Brownlee and his cabinet.

that far exceeded his anticipations." He was pleased to believe this was expressive of Canada's sentiments towards the United States.

"I think an event of surpassing importance to Canada, to the whole British Empire, and to the United States has occurred during my term of office as Secretary of State," said Mr. Kellogg. "The appointment of the first minister from the Dominion of Canada to the United States, and the appointment of the first United States minister to Canada. I feel this was a notable step between the British Empire and the United States—another link formed in our international relations making for more intimate acquaintance and facilitating the adjustment of the many questions arising between Canada and the United States."

Mr. Kellogg touched upon the gift of Canada to the American people of the memorial in Arlington cemetery, commemorating the sacrifice of the American-born soldiers who served and gave their lives in the Canadian armies.

"There is in each country a strong nationalistic feeling," said Mr. Kellogg, "you on your part of loyalty to your country and to your great Empire, we to our country. We are rivals in all those accomplishments which make great nations—in economic, scientific and educational developments; but it is rivalry without bitterness, a rivalry which tends to enhance the development of both countries. You have not grown, and developed less because the United States has grown and developed with you. Rather, our efforts have supplemented each other."

Mr. Kellogg made reference to the long peace between Canada and the United States and declared that with tolerance and patience there was no question which could not and would not be adjusted. Experience, however, had shown that war in any part of the world could not fail to affect all nations.

"We are desirous of promoting peace. We should therefore find our influence in every possible way consistent with our sovereign rights and institutions to aid in the advancement of peace," he declared.

Memorial To Earl Haig

Premier Baldwin Has Suggested Erection Of Public Monument

London.—Premier Baldwin, in a glowing eulogy of the late Field Marshal Earl Haig, in the House of Commons, moved that the King be requested to order the erection of a public monument to the field marshal as an expression of the state's attitude.

Premier Baldwin's motion was carried after Ramsay MacDonald, Labour leader, who associated himself with Mr. Baldwin's tribute, moved an unsuccessful amendment to the Premier's motion, whereby a committee should be appointed to consider the best form of memorial, in view of the field marshal's concern for the welfare of ex-servicemen, their widows and dependents.

Urge Harsh Measures

B.C. Council Of Women Recommend Lash For Drug Peddlars

Victoria.—Resolutions along social lines were adopted at the annual meeting of the Provincial Council of Women in session here.

One urged an amendment to the Opium and Drug Act of 1923, so that the offenders against the act might be punished with the lash. Copies of communications from the Hon. A. M. Manson, British Columbia Attorney-General, were read in connection with the discussion. One of these letters to the Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, recommended the lash for such cases and noted that the problem is probably more acute in British Columbia and Quebec than in other provinces.

Too Busy For War

U.S. Occupied With Domestic Affairs Says J. A. Spender

London.—Citizens of the United States are too busy with their own affairs to claim a dream of war, J. A. Spender, former editor of the Westminster Gazette, declared in a statement concerning his recent trip to the United States. He said he thought that officially there was a certain chill in the relations between Great Britain and the United States because of the results of the recent Geneva naval conference, but that this official chill was not reflected by the people of the United States, who feel goodwill for Great Britain.

Commemorate Amery's Visit
Ottawa.—To commemorate the visit of the Rt. Hon. Col. L. C. M. S. Amery, Secretary of State for the Dominions and Colonies, a mountain in Alberta having an elevation of 10,900 feet has been named "Mount Amery" by the geographic board of Canada with the concurrence of the Province of Alberta. The mountain overlooks the junction of the Alberta River with the North Saskatchewan from a point just south of the Alexander.

Fire Destroys Historic Inn
Niagara Falls, Ont.—The old Hob in Hood Tavern in Stamford Township, the Niagara District's oldest house of entertainment, has been totally destroyed by fire. Two huge brick fire places at either end of the building are now all that remain of the historic old inn, built 102 years ago.

Propose Central Bank
Ottawa.—G. G. Cooke, U.F.A., MacLeod, has given notice of a resolution advocating that the "government should consider the advisability of establishing a government central bank of rediscout and note issue in Canada."

Quebec Sports Big Attraction

Beginning end of December and running until the third week of March and featuring the Eastern International Dog-sled Derby, the Quebec City Winter sports is a magnet that brings the tourists from near and far. Prof. Archibald MacMechan, of Dalhousie University, Halifax, whose fine essay, "O Canada," was awarded first prize in a Canadian-wide contest conducted by the Women's Canadian Club, of Toronto.

Would Purchase Alaska

Matter Is Discussed By Members Of B.C. Legislature

Victoria.—The resolution of H. F. Kergin, Liberal, Atlin, suggesting that negotiations be opened with the United States for the acquisition by Canada of the Alaska Panhandle, was discussed in the Legislature here. The resolution requests the Dominion Government to take up the matter in an effort to arrive at an amicable agreement between the two countries. Debate on the motion was adjourned.

The history of the acquisition of the Alaskan territory by the United States was reviewed, together with the claims of Canada for the territory along the mainland of British Columbia by Mr. Kergin, and by Ian MacKenzie, Liberal, Vancouver.

Mr. MacKenzie said that recently the League of Nations had been responsible of the settling of many boundaries in Europe which differed materially from what they had been, that it was reasonable to suppose the question of the Alaskan Panhandle might be adjusted in the light of recent ideas as to equity among nations.

"Canada, he said, could afford to pay, to pay for this stretch of land as much as the United States paid for Russia for the whole of Alaska, if this was necessary."

Another Victim Of Canned Heat
Winnipeg.—Winnipeg's fifteenth victim of poison alcohol within the past six weeks has been reported. The latest victim was Robert E. Good, 35 years old, who succumbed to the effects of methyl hydrate poisoning. He was found lying in bed unconscious by roomers in the house at which he was staying. He died without regaining consciousness.

May Be Acquired By Manitoba
Ottawa.—If the province of Manitoba wants the Seven Sister Falls on the Winnipeg River, in Eastern Manitoba, it can have them, and in any event, the province will get preference in this respect before any private interests, states Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior.

Going To Geneva
Ottawa.—Senator Ralston Dandurand, government leader in the Senate, has sailed from New York to represent Canada at a meeting of the council of the League of Nations at Geneva.

Protest Showing Of Edith Cavell Film

Might Embitter Relations With England Says German Government

Berlin.—The German government is making protests against the showing of a motion picture built on the career and execution of the English nurse, Edith Cavell. The foreign office has issued this statement: "The German ambassador at London and the German minister at Brussels are making all efforts to prevent the 'Nurse Cavell' film being shown to the public, their standpoint being such a film can only revive painful memories and embitter relations between the countries."

It was remarked that the aim version of Edith Cavell's execution differs from the German official account. The official account contains nothing about a German officer having shot her to death with his revolver or about a German soldier in the firing squad having refused to obey the order to fire.

To Face Turkish Court
Brissau, Turkey.—Miss Edith Sanderson, of Berkeley, Cal., teacher in the school here which closed recently on complaints by the authorities that she had broken Turkish law by converting students, will be tried in a Turkish court February 13, on a charge of breaking the law forbidding religious propaganda. It is generally expected that Miss Sanderson will be fined and directed to leave the country.

Discontinue Secret Service
Victoria.—The secret service system operated by the liquor board has been discontinued, the public accounts committee of the legislature was told by Attorney-General Manson.

Western Dairy Convention Is A Big Success
Regina.—Reaching a high mark in attendance, The Western Canada Dairy convention, proved one of the most successful and profitable gatherings held in the west for some time.

J. J. Cochrane, Kerrobert, conducted the producers' session of the convention when the importance of fodder crops in milk production was discussed by the delegates. Varying opinions as to the value of corn as fodder crop were expressed during the discussion. It was apparent that some of the delegates had found corn too expensive a crop owing to the difficulty of getting it cut during the farmers' busy season.

G. G. Perrisau, North Battleford, gave an interesting address on "The Influence of Our Boys and Girls in the Dairy Industry."

W. J. Cowie, Moose Jaw, gave the producers some facts and figures that revealed the real progress in scientific production in the Moose Jaw district under the guidance of the Moose Jaw Herd Improvement Association.

Professor L. M. Winters, animal husbandry department of the University of Saskatchewan, was accorded warm applause at the close of his informative paper on "Udder diseases and Care of Cows During the Dry Period."

Coincident with the producers' session a special session of manufacturers was held, addresses on technical subjects relating to water production being given by internationally known experts.

Dr. E. G. Hood, chief of the dairy division of the Federal department of agriculture, gave an interesting paper on "Further Studies on Surface Taints and a Modified Score Card for Exhibition Butter."

Professor O. F. Humziker, Chicago, spoke on the subject of "Butter Manufacture from Sour Cream." He stated it was better to concentrate on keeping cream fresh than to do means of making good butter from sour cream. When cream was permitted to sour before it left the farm, he said, it invariably imparted a bad flavor to the butter and also had a detrimental effect on the cans containing it.

Producers and manufacturers came together again at a luncheon under the auspices of the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculturists. Mrs. Helen Campbell, Ottawa, of the dairy branch of the Federal Department of Agriculture, spoke of the educational work being done to increase the consumption of milk and its products in Canada. Consumption in Canada was high enough to encourage them to further effort and low enough to be a challenge to increased effort, she said.

Propose Pension For Veterans
Ottawa.—Alfred Spearman, U.F.A., Edmonton, will propose in the House of Commons a resolution calling on the Government to consider the advisability of introducing this session such legislation as would provide for the payment of pensions to all former members of the Canadian expeditionary forces who are totally incapacitated, even when attributable to war service cannot be proven in such cases.

A RIGHTEOUS VERDICT

In Washington state every citizen is a potential juror and may be called on to pass upon cases involving insanity pleas like that of the Hickman defense. The court's instructions to the Los Angeles jury are therefore of national importance. To be adjudged insane, explained Judge Trabucco, the defendant's mind must have been affected to the extent that he did not know the difference between right and wrong; the law refuses to recognize a plea of "uncontrollable impulse."

That is law, and that is reason. When an "expert witness, setting himself up as an alienist, testifies for the defense in such cases, he establishes himself as an ignoramus or a knave. If he had more than a smattering of physiology and psychology, he would know that the brain has two parts—the upper, seat of intelligence; the lower, seat of the emotions, of normal, humane feelings and sympathies.

An individual may be keen intellectually, and morally an idiot. Hickman was such an abnormality. He had superior standing in high school and knew the difference between right and wrong. At every stage of his fiendish crime, and at every point of his flight to the north, he knew that he had violated the law and committed a monstrous wrong.

If the sensational Hickman trial shall implant in the public mind a better understanding of these distinctions and responsibilities, the publicity it has been given can be turned to good account. It should sweep away some dangerous misunderstandings about the legal responsibility of criminals like Hickman. These do not necessarily come from the morose elements of the nation. A moron may be, and usually is, normal in his emotions. He may be kind, sympathetic, dutiful, industrious, patient and in a dozen ways an excellent citizen, as Dickens well knew.

On the opposing hand, an individual may have high intellectual attainments and be morally defective and, in some instances, of criminal and even fiendish bent.—Spokesman Review.

KNIVES IN HIS BODY. NO PAIN OR BLOOD

VIENNA, Feb. 11.—Hundreds of physicians gathered today at headquarters of the Austrian Society for Physic Research and watched in amazement as Paul Diebel, 30-year-old Silesian miner, had daggers and knives thrust into his body without evincing indication of pain or producing a flow of blood.

The spectators included many women, some of whom leaned forward with opera glasses to catch a better view of the miner as he was pierced. Others fainted at the sight.

This was the first time a group of qualified scientific men had witnessed his astounding exhibition. They pronounced it genuine.

Witnesses said that Diebel thrust a dagger through the forearm so that the instrument protruded on the other side. He showed his arm around the room before he withdrew the dagger. Not once did he wince and he did not shed a drop of blood.

The miner next, "by concentration of will power," caused drops of blood to trickle through the wall of his stomach, following with expulsion of blood from his knee.

His most dramatic act was to make a large cross in blood to appear on his back, the blood being forced to the surface by uncanny exercise of will power.

Diebel concluded his exhibition by allowing one of the spectators to shoot a large metal bolt into his chest by means of a catapult. He then calmly withdrew the missile with no show of pain and permitted physicians to examine the bloodless wound produced.—Ex.

Hughie McMillan, in lieu of a speech, told a couple of his usual good stories. A. Tustian rendered two pleasing solos. After the tables were removed, the time until 1:30 a.m. was given over to dancing old time dances. Charles McKerral rendered "The Sailor's Hornpipe" and "Highland Fling" in his usual excellent style, while Mrs. Littleton also favored with a dance. Music was furnished by Arthur Tustian, Ketta Tustian, Alvin Murphy, Miss Morris and Charles McKerral.

Reviving Canadian Musical Wealth

(1) Lt.-Gov. Randolph Bruce, of E.C. who attended the Festival. (2) A step in the Highland Fling. (3) Toasting the caber, one of the athletic events. (4) Picturing Indians grouped on the grounds at the Banff Springs Hotel. (5) Ralph Connor, who preached at the open-air service in the Sun Dance Chapel.

According to general comment throughout the country, the second decisive step towards reviving and preserving the wealth of music indigenous of this country, has been achieved with the conclusion of the Highland Gathering and Festival of Scottish Music held at the Banff Springs Hotel, Banff, Alberta, during the first week of September. Not only in Canada but in the United States and Great Britain, have newspapers and current magazines commented most favorably upon this musical event, the first venture along these lines being in May when the Canadian Polka and Handicraft Festival was held at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec City.

Proof of the interest taken in these things was given recently when the Right Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Premier of Great Britain, commented upon the Polka Festival held at Quebec. This event was one of the first of public interest touched upon by the Premier after his arrival in Canada. Mr. Baldwin observed with pleasure the success of the festival and stated that events of that kind were invaluable in keeping alive the old-time customs, songs and handicrafts which, he was sorry to observe, were wont to be forgotten in the rush and bustle of the present day. The Festivals at Quebec and Banff have been staged through the generosity of E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. Organizing work in connection with these festivals are the first of their kind to have been staged in Canada. This work was undertaken by J. Murray Gibson, general publicity agent of the Canadian Pacific whose personal interest largely accounted for their success. Many of the old folk songs which were featured at the Canadian Polka Festival being translated by him.

Scotts in Canada played a memorable part in the development of the country, their names having prominence in many engineering, trading and exploration enterprises—such men as Fraser, Mackenzie and Thompson, and many others of the past generations who penetrated the mountains of the West. It was here in the same mountains, unrivaled in the world for beauty, that the Scottish Festival was held and for which hundreds gathered from all parts of the country to attend. The gathering was of a national character, as each of the seventeen provincial amateur boxing eliminations for Southern Alberta. The date of the meet is March 7th. There will be classes for juniors ranging from 70 to 110 pounds, and for seniors, both novice and open classes, in weights from 112 pounds up. Probably a record has been established in connection with the municipal elections here on Monday, for out of some 480 actual owners of town lots and property, and qualified voters, all but eleven made use of their franchise. This did not include the wives or members of the families represented.

Yep, there is a difference. To get your name in the city paper you have to shoot your wife, marry a movie star or do something sensational. But to get your name in the country paper, all you have to do is to have a guest, go a-visiting, have a baby at your house, buy a pure bred bull or improve your property.

Julia—"What is the cure for love at first sight?"
Edna—"Second sight."

A farmer received a crate containing some fowls. He wrote to the sender, informing him that the crate was so badly made that it had come to pieces when he was taking the hens home with him, and they all escaped, and after much searching he had succeeded in finding only seven of them. In due course he received the following reply:

"You were lucky to find seven hens, because I sent you only six."

PRESENTATION TO RETIRING SECRETARY

The Junior Catholic Women's League held its monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Jeannette Thibodeau.

After the regular business, the president, Miss E. Picard, called the attention of the members to the fact that it was the last meeting at which the secretary, Miss Milda Bond, would take part, as she is leaving shortly to enter as a nurse-in-training in the Holy Cross hospital, Calgary. Her resignation is deeply regretted, for her services to the League since its inception have been of stellar worth.

On behalf of the members, the president assured the retiring secretary of the sincere good wishes of all the members for her success in her new duties.

Miss J. Thibodeau, vice-president, presented Miss Bond with a lovely pouch-lug, properly engraved, as a token of good wishes. Response was fittingly made, after which lunch was served and an enjoyable evening was spent.

Those present were: Misses M. Bond, E. Picard, J. Thibodeau, S. Kubic, J. Dutil, B. Pozzi, G. Thibodeau, F. Tompkins, D. Drain, M. Schlosser, A. Tomasson, G. Huguet, B. Johnson, F. Fabro, R. Aschacher, E. Christy, H. Dutil, M. J. Coyne and Mrs. Geo. Bond.

BLAIRMORE JUVENILES WIN SERIES FROM BELLEVUE

Some of the best hockey contests of the season have been played between the Bellevue and Blairmore juveniles. So close has been the fight that the series ended with Blairmore winners by but one goal.

The final game was played on the Bellevue arena on Friday night last when Bellevue emerged with the long end of a two-one score.

Arrangements are being made for the next series, which will likely be with Blackie or High River.

After 22 years residence in Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. C. McDonald are planning on leaving for Brule, Alberta. During their residence in Coleman, which they have seen grow from a small hamlet to its present size, they have both taken an active part in local affairs; Mr. McDonald having been a councillor for several years in the early history of the town, and for sixteen years was a school trustee, while Mrs. McDonald has been prominent in various ladies' organizations and the Eastern Star chapter. A host of friends regret their departure from Coleman, and will join in wishing them success in their new home. Mr. McDonald will leave about March 1st, and Mrs. McDonald will follow later.—Coleman Journal.

The minister had just married an elderly and rather dour Scot to a woman considerably younger than himself, and he remarked affably to the bridegroom: "Well, Jack, I suppose you'll be going for a honeymoon—a little trip somewhere together before you settle down to married life, eh?"

The bridegroom shook his head morosely. "Na, na," he said; "I dinna hold wi' gallivantin' about wi' a strange wumman."

The Logical Place Lady—"I'd like a magazine for a boy—about ten years old."

New Salesman—"We haven't any as old as that, madam. Have you tried the local dentist's office?"

George V.—"That's good news. How did you accomplish that?"

Baldwin—"By charging for lodgings at the jails."

New Angle On Annexation

English Author Has Idea That Canada Will Annex United States

Confessing astonishment that Canadians laughed at him when he predicted the time would come when Canada would walk southward and annex the United States, Morley Roberts, English traveller and author, holds fast to his view in his book "On the Old Trail." His thesis is that a hardy northern nation will some day grow strong in the regions south of Hudson Bay that economic pressure will force it to expand southward.

As a variation upon an old theme Mr. Roberts' prophecy is amusing and refreshing. Hereafter talk of the annexationist talk has run in the other direction, where it has done unnecessary harm. What Mr. Roberts says on the subject is about as sensible as what any other prophet of annexation has ever said.

After all, the proposal that Canada should annex the United States is about as reasonable as the proposal that the United States should annex Canada; the one has about as much chance of taking place as the other.

If our Canadian friends laughed at the Englishman's suggestion we of the States can afford to smile with them. The realm of international politics has too little humor as it is and such a priceless opportunity for merriment ought not to be lost. Annexation is a scarecrow which has sometimes been taken too seriously; it is good to have it dragged out and revealed for the ridiculous thing it is.

Aged Woman Had Queer Mania

House Was Packed With Furniture
From Auction Sales

Miss Baldwin, a mystery woman of 83 years of age, who recently died at Richmond, England, lived alone in the same house for 52 years, had a mania for buying furniture, yet left no space in which to erect a bed, and had 100 hats. All the rooms were found packed with furniture and household goods, most of which she obtained at auction sales which she frequently attended.

"Miss Baldwin would change her hat several times a day," said a neighbor. "Although she had many bedsteads she never slept in bed because there was no room to erect one. She never appeared short of money, but where it came from was a mystery."

Canadian Wool Production

Production in Canada For 1927
Totalled 18,872,766 Pounds
Production of wool in Canada in 1927 totalled 18,872,766 pounds, an increase of 662,870 pounds over the 1926 production. By provinces the wool clip last year was: Prince Edward Island, 513,882 pounds; Nova Scotia, 1,480,541 pounds; New Brunswick, 873,724 pounds; Quebec, 4,056,418 pounds; Ontario, 5,326,651 pounds; Manitoba, 765,609 pounds; Saskatchewan, 987,458 pounds; Alberta, 3,033,181 pounds; British Columbia, 717,892 pounds; and Indian Reserves, 17,410 pounds.

It took a postal card, mailed by Pauline Prior, 20 years to reach the addressee, Helen Sharp, although the card travelled only 40 miles. Miss Prior mailed the card in Boston, Ill., to Miss Sharp in McLeanboro, on February 3, 1908.

Predicts Civilization Of North

Stefansson Foresees Thriving Industries In Arctic Circle

An Arctic civilization with commerce and industry thriving in the frozen northlands was pictured by Vilhjalmur Stefansson, explorer, author and lecturer, in an address before Chicago business leaders of the Executive Club.

The march of progress has been northward, the explorer said. At present, Stefansson said, the expansion of civilization must be on northward into upper Canada and Alaska. Winnipeg, he said, already handles more wheat than Chicago, Duluth and the Twin Cities combined, and western Canada had only started to grow.

Among the resources of this Arctic circle he mentioned oil, as yet undeveloped, but present in abundance, and gold, with vast areas of grazing land. The winter in the Arctic circle is only one month longer than at Winnipeg and all the activities of Winnipeg are possible there.

He pictured the cross-roads of the world in the great northern icefields, with the shortest routes from Chicago, London and New York to the Orient by airplanes over the north pole.

Made King Albert Explain

Belgian King Suspected Of Being
Motorcycle Thief

King Albert of Belgium lives at Laeken, the fashionable suburb of "Little Paris," as Brussels is called. He does not always drive in one of the State limousines, but frequently uses a motorcycle to go to his office in the morning like many of his subjects. One morning the Brussels police were keeping a sharp lookout, an epidemic of motorcycle robberies had been reported the previous night. King Albert came on chug-chugging to the toll gate that separates Brussels from Laeken. The officials stopped him. "Your license, please," the King said to the guard that he did not have any. Upon this grave and suspicious declaration he was asked to come inside the toll house and explain matters. In the course of the questioning the King was asked for his identity papers. He did not have them either but he had a letter addressed to him personally, would that do, he asked. The official told him to show the letter. When he read the address the shells fell off his eyes and he started to shake and tremble all over. Needless to say, the King was allowed to proceed on his way.

Manitoba Department Of Mines

Premier John Bracken Will Be The Minister In Charge

Manitoba is to have a department of mines and natural resources of which Premier John Bracken will be the minister in charge and Prof. R. C. Wallace, of the Manitoba University, will be the commissioner. The new department will look after grants to mining institutions, assistance in assaying for prospectors, prospectors short courses, mineral exhibits, publications and industrial development, as well as power site exploratory work and natural resources.

Creation of the department was announced by Premier Bracken in the Legislature. That the Premier may be able to devote sufficient time to the new work, he will relinquish the position of minister of telephone and this probably will be taken over by Hon. W. R. Chubb, minister of public works, as an additional office.

The city of Warsaw, wishing to obtain a new loan from either British or American financiers, has decided to open negotiations for the repayment of additional branch offices of the department of finance for the redemption of Dominion notes.

British Colonies' fight to secure equalized freight rates cost the province $100,000, according to a statement by Hon. A. M. Four freshmen in the University of Arkansas do not know who Charles A. Lindbergh is.

One of them thinks he was the Prime Minister of Sweden during the sixteenth century; one thinks he was a German general in the World War; one thinks he is the leader of the Bolsheviks in Russia; while the fourth understands Lindbergh was the battle line that the Allies had such difficulty in breaking through in 1918.

These answers were found among papers handed in at a quiz in a freshman-history course at Fayetteville, recently.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

FEBRUARY 40
TWO MIRACLES OF POWER

Golden Text: "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?"

Lesson: Mark 4:35-5:20.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 104:1-8.

Explanations and Comments

I. The Storm, 4:35-37.—On the day that Jesus spoke many parables (our last lesson), he said at evening to his disciples: "Let us go over unto the other side," for he would escape the multitudes and rest. They took him with them in the boat, even as he was. What an insight into the humanness of Jesus that little phrase—even as he was—implies! The day had severely taxed His physical strength, and He was tired out. He needed rest of to-morrow sooner was His work done, and when His disciples were ended and the disciples set sail from the shore, he sank down in the stern and fell asleep.

"What strikes us here is that he had learned to relax—to use the language of to-morrow sooner was His work done, than He composed Himself to sleep, and as comfortably as possible He used the cushion as His pillow. Some people break down because they have never learned to relax. Their work done, they cannot rest. Their minds are still busy. If we are to work to the full, we must learn to drop the yoke swiftly and to rest with both mind and body. Jesus is an example in this also."—R. C. Gillie.

Suddenly there arose a great windstorm, and drove the waves into the boat so that it began to fill. There have always been sudden and violent storms on the Sea of Galilee.

Welching the Earth

By means of some complicated instruments in Washington the earth can be weighed. The long accepted figure for the weight of the earth has been 6,650,000,000,000,000,000 tons. Weighed more recently it is discovered that the earth is lighter than had been supposed. It tips the scales at only 6,653,000,000,000,000,000 tons. Does that mean anything to you? At least you can rest your mind on it when you have been worrying about our income or other small figures.

The BABY

No mother in this enlightened age would give her baby something she did not know was perfectly harmless, especially when a few drops of plain Castoria will right a baby's stomach and end almost any little ill. Flatulence and fever, too; it comes no time until everything is serene.

That's the best of Castoria: its gentle influence seems just what is needed. It does all that castor oil might accomplish, without shock to the system. Without the evil taste, it's delicious! Befrag pure vegetable.

You can give it as often as there's a sign of colic; constipation; diarrhea; or need to aid sound, natural sleep.

Just one warning: It is genuine Fletcher's Castoria that physicians recommend. Other preparations may be just as free from all doubtful drugs, but no child of this writer's is going to test them! Besides, the look on care and feeding of babies that comes with Fletcher's Castoria is worth its weight in gold.

CHAPTER 'XIX

One day in August, when the train came in, the conductor ran into the station and shouted to the operator, "Say, Ted, there's a war in Europe! What do you know about that?"

"Ted took his pipe from his mouth and spat at the red stove. 'Quit your kidding,' he said, laughing."

The conductor handed him the paper. "What do you make of that?" he said, as he pointed to the staring headlines. "Maybe you'll believe me when you read that?"

The operator grudgingly admitted that there seemed to be more in it than he had at first believed. "Well, what's it all about?" he asked the conductor, whose row is it any way?"

The conductor tried to explain. "Tain't any of our business, is it, if someone shoots an arch-duke," said the operator. "It's about all some of these arch-dukes got for? Are they scarce of them?"

He was dusting off his desk with a large handkerchief as he spoke, and that was a sure sign of mental activity.

"It looks bad, Ted," the conductor said, looking at the headlines. "Well, what's it all about?" he asked the conductor, whose row is it any way?"

Old Slim, the night watchman, took it more seriously than anyone in Eagle Mines. "Wars," he said to Helmi and Mrs. McDaniel when he came in for his supper that night. "Is inevitable. That's a big word, Helmi, and means can't be helped. They come over so often, and kill a lot of people and maim and hurt a lot, make a lot of debt and trouble. Everyone in the war zone—on one side—every one blames someone else. No one knows for sure what it's about, but just while it is on no one cares. To these here fighters men any war is better than no war. Then it gets done when everyone is dead or lame, or there's great tired enough to talk sense, and the world tries to pay the debts, builds up the burnt cities, gets the sick fellows well, buys crutches for the one-legged men and glass eyes for the blind and provides for the widows and orphans! And then there's great councils and meetings to find out who started the darn thing, and maybe they find out it was some stranger that no one ever knew was there at the time."

"The war I was in," Sam continued, "was started by the skinkin' of a big boat called the 'Maine,' and we was told to keep on saying 'Remember the Maine,' if ever we got chicken-hearted or soft toward the enemy, or tired, or homesick, or down in the mouth. That was to be what they called our slogan, and we stuck to it pretty well. It shook me up quite a lot the day I lost my leg—my best one it was, too—but ain't that always the way? I didn't do much remembering of the Maine that day. But a'ish it all didn't they find out later that it wasn't the Spaniards at all that sunk the ship? There was great explanation and after-pardons and excuses and beggery, but no one was far down as the privates. But that's war, Helmi."

"Do men have to go?" asked Helmi, with a sudden whitening of her face. "men like Jack, I mean—good men don't want to know!"

Helmi was getting the tables ready for the morning. Old Slim was always the last occupant of the dining-room. "They do and they don't," replied the old man, cautiously. "The law don't make them, but you just can't stay when everyone is lookin' at you as if you ought to be there. I wasn't fussy about war—there's too much killin' in it for me. If it could be done by arguin' I'd like it fine, but this thing of 'contradictin' a man by runnin' a spear into him looks coarse and clumsy. Now that young Jack of yours, he wouldn't kill nothin' any better than I would, but I know how he'd feel. They get great meetin's and crowds and play bands, and by Gosh! when the bands played 'Dixie Land' or 'Marchin' through Georgia,' I never cared whether it got killed or not, and Spaniards was just like pizen bugs to me—that was just while the band was playin', though I always came to when it stopped."

"It is all wicked bad to me," said Helmi, as she held the dupstun with one hand and swept with the other. "I wish Jack would come home. I am afraid, Sam."

"War is hell on women," said the old man, "but it don't do no good to worry, Helmi."

"But it is far away, Sam—miles and miles of water—all gray and far off. It's a long way! Why should we send our men to fight? We won't; it's the Old Country right in Canada."

It was a long speech for Helmi to make, and she had to stop her sweeping to do it.

"Anyways, Jack is safe up there on the Nebraska—he will not hear of it until it's over maybe," said Sam.

Helmi looked at him gratefully. "Will you have tea or coffee tonight in shiny bottle?" she said.

Eagle Mines, composed largely of Americans, was not greatly disturbed by the war. The mine boss, although a Canadian, expressed the general view when he said, "Let the people who started this thing finish it. It's not our funeral. We'll keep our heads down and mine coal—that's our business, and that's our business."

The men heartily concurred in this, and when the price of coal went up, and their wages had a corresponding increase, they were not disposed to quarrel with the cause.

"Good old war," said Peter Hamilton, the time-keeper, as he counted out the men's money at the end of October. "Long may she wave."

The first disturbing glimpse that the residents of Eagle Mines had, was the coming of an English homestead-er from up the river. He was but slightly known to the people because he came in only twice a year to buy his supplies, and never lingered for a friendly chat like other people, and therefore was not liked by the few people who had seen him. Their diagnosis of his case was that he was just a little off. A man who lives alone, raises dogs, takes pictures, gets no mail, and talks to no one except when it cannot be avoided, has no right to expect that people will consider him a sane person. The residents of Eagle Mines, when referring to him at all called him, "the crazy Englishman."

It was a dull gray day in early November that he came to town and drew up in front of Simpson's store. He sprang out of his hunched and ran into the store, excitedly. "The Empire is at war!" he shouted; "Did you know it? A man passing by my place showed me the paper. Did you know it? Why didn't you send me word?"

Jim Simpson wrinkled his nose. "How did I know you cared?" he asked, replacing a prune which had fallen to the floor.

The other man raised his voice almost to a shout. "Cared? Cared? Don't you know what it means? It's my country—my country—It's threatened—everyone's scared!"

"Well, I don't," said the storekeeper, positively; "she got into this with-out a'ikin' me, and she ain't got out the same way."

The Englishman stood speechless. Could it be that any man living in the Empire on which the sun never sets could utter such words and live? Something of the numbness of amazement which fell on Rip Van Winkle when he returned to find good King George gone, and no one sorry but himself, fell on him. Could it be that—but no, that was impossible. The Empire would endure as long as the sun held its course.

The Englishman had been a resident of the neighborhood for over fifteen years. Long before the opening of the mines he had come, and adjusted on a piece of land in another fertile valley about eight miles further up the river, going in on foot with all his possessions, a gun on his back and a dog at his heels. Beside the crooked little stream (called English River, in compliment to him) he built a shelter of boughs and began to cultivate a piece of land for his garden with a wooden hoe of his own making. He had told the people at Blumman, which was the nearest settlement, that any man should be able to wear a living from the soil if he had a dog for company, an axe, gun and a few seeds.

Large Financial Outlay

Over Twenty-Nine Millions Spent On Road Improvement Last Year

George W. Yates, Acting Federal Commissioner of Highways, reports that for the year ending March 31, 1927, the outlay completed under the Canada Highways Act was $7,436, with $72 under improvement.

In addition to the work Federally subsidized the nine provinces have carried on extensive programs of highway construction and improvement. With the result that a total of 5,785 miles of road were improved during the season of 1926, at an outlay of $29,585,000, made up of Federal, Provincial and Municipal expenditures. The total amount spent on the improvement and maintenance of Canadian roads during 1926 was approximately $45,500,000.

There were 245,708 miles of highway approved as being eligible to participate in the $20,000,000 Federal highway subsidy. So far of this amount $18,775,000 has been paid over to the provinces.

This year will complete the Federal subsidy. It is unlikely there will be a further Federal grant.

Fox Farming An Established Industry

37,000 Foxes Inspected and Registered By the Department

Referring to fox farming in the report of the Honorable Mr. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture, he states that silver fox farming is now one of the established industries of the country and bids fair to go on increasing for many years to come. During the year under review there were inspected by officers of the department and tattooed for registration, 37,000 foxes, which was a considerable increase over the previous year. Despite this increase, the Minister points out, prices for live foxes held steadily, while pelts in the open market commanded higher prices on the average than in the previous season. Taken as a whole the year is reported to have been a most successful one for the fox breeders who are finding a lively export market in the United States and in several of the European countries.

Little Helps For This Week

"He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city." Prov. xvi, 32.

If, then, you wish not to be of an angry temper, do not feed the habit; throw nothing on it which will increase it; at first keep quiet, and count the days on which you have not been angry; for the habit at first becomes weak, and then is completely destroyed. When you can say, 'I have not been vexed today, not the day before, nor yet on any succeeding day during two or three months, but I took care when some exciting things happened,' be assured that you are in a good way.—Epictetus.

To rule oneself is in reality the greatest triumph.—Sir John Lubbock.

Let the world be better, brighter. For your having trod its way. Let your light be seen afar. Ere sinks down life's little day. Scatter seeds of love and kindness As you tread the heavenly road. You will find them all again In the paradise of God.

—Sister Dora. (Dorothy Wynndol Pattison).

There is nothing so powerful as example. We put others straight by walking straight ourselves.

—Madame Swetchine.

What do we live for if it is not to make life less difficult to each other?—George Eliot.

Freedom From Asthma. Asthma is one of the most distressing troubles, maddening its attacks and prolonging its agonies. Frequently many things are tried, but nothing seems to give hope of relief. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy is the one help which can be depended upon. If you have tried other remedies without success, do not fail to get at once a package of this uniformly successful preparation.

English Prisons For Sale

Twenty Are On Market But There Are No Buyers

English prisons, fully equipped, complete with gallows and condemned cells, graveyard, warden's house and grounds, are for sale in groups. Since the war the prison population has shown a great decrease.

Although the Home Office has advertised the jails in such alluring fashion as "the large and substantially built prison, with the adjoining detached villa, formerly the Governor's house," offers have been few.

Twenty prisons are now for sale, but most of them are going begging.

One can get a good prison for anything from $25 to $100,000. The prison at Stornoway, in the Hebrides, was sold, everything included, for $25. The Newcastle Prison, however, brought $135,000, and the Carlisle Prison, $30,000.

The County Down Jail at Downpatrick went for $100. Brecon Prison, in the mountains of Wales, with beautiful scenery and all the aspect of a summer resort, received a bid of $4,000 and there was no sale.

The Horrors Of War

The romantic and the poet may still strive desperately to keep up the old glamour which surrounded the business of fighting. But it is not there, and they know it. There is no "shining armor" left in modern war; only mud and blood and a dull kind of office work.

Miller's Worm Powders will purge the stomach and intestines of worms so effectively and so easily and painlessly that the most delicate stomach will not feel any inconvenience from their action. They recommend themselves to mothers as a preparation that will restore strength and vigor to their children and protect them from the debilitating effects which result from the depredations of worms.

Jeeves: "So you attended the lecture last evening, who talked?"

Reveree: "The audience, as usual."

By Always Keeping Baby's Own Tablets In The Home

A simple and safe remedy for the common ills of babyhood and childhood should be kept in every home where a baby or a young child is being reared. Often it is necessary to give the little ones something to break up a cold, bring down a fever, soothe a stomach and banish the irritability that accompanies the cutting of teeth.

Experienced mothers always keep Baby's Own Tablets in the home as a safeguard against the troubles that seize their little ones so suddenly, and the young mother can feel reasonably safe with a box of these Tablets at hand and ready for emergencies.

PIMPLES BROKE OUT ON FACE

Lasted Nearly a Year. Healed by Cuticura.

"My skin trouble began with pimples breaking out on my face. They gradually grew worse and spread to my body. They were red and itched very much, and when I scratched them it caused more pain. Scratching caused eruptions which disfigured my face. At night I could not sleep on account of the irritation. The trouble lasted nearly a year."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. The sample helped me so I purchased more and in five months I was healed."
